Quotations from the CFMS Board of Directors:

“The CFMS 2018-19 is a diverse representative board comprised of directors from coast-to-coast. I’m looking forward to leading the board as we continue to advance the priorities of medical students and the objectives of our Strategic plan.”

- Dr. Henry Annan, Past-president & Board Chair

“Congratulations to the new Board of the CFMS. I am excited about working with such a driven and passionate group of medical student leaders as we advance the CFMS in the areas of advocacy for student engagement, building collaborations & communications, and changing Canadian medical education culture.”

- Stephanie Smith, CFMS President

About the CFMS

Founded in 1977 by Canadian medical students, today 41 years later the Canadian Federation of Medical Students (CFMS) represents over 8,400 medical students at 15 medical schools across Canada. Under our 2017-2022 Strategic Operations & Human Resources Plan, the CFMS represents medical students to the public, the federal government, and national and international medical organizations. As the national voice of Canadian medical students, the CFMS are tomorrow’s physicians leading for health today with the aim to connect, support, and represent its membership as they learn to serve patients and society.
