

MEDIA ALERT

Future Physicians Visit Parliament Hill to Discuss Health Human Resources

OTTAWA, January 30, 2013 – The Canadian Federation of Medical Students (CFMS) will bring tomorrow's physicians to Parliament Hill for its annual Lobby Day on February 4, 2013.

Medical students from across the country will meet with Members of Parliament and Senators to discuss health human resources and methods for improving access to health care in rural and remote regions. They will propose solutions such as the creation of health human resources projections and incentives to more effectively attract physicians to areas of need.

When: Monday, February 4, 2013
8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Where: Room 2-2, National Press Building
Ottawa, Ontario

The CFMS President Robin Clouston and Vice President Advocacy Thomas McLaughlin will be available for media interviews in English. Executive Vice President Jesse Kancir will be available for media interviews in French.

The Canadian Federation of Medical Students (CFMS) is a national organization that represents over 7500 medical students at 14 medical schools across Canada.
